The Pedigree Directory

1917

A List of Pedigrees and of those interested in Pedigrees, in one Alphabet. A Key to the vast store of information in private hands

Most families treasure up a pedigree or pedigrees ; many possess very fine ones. Practically the steps in every pedigree are known to someone, somewhere, and can be proved. Use this Directory to ascertain to whom to apply for information, and the names of those who seek information. To avoid frivolous correspondence charge a small fee for information given ; the fee can be handed to, a War Charity

Preface.

IT is not necessary to point out to an intelligent and discerning public, that if you want to know you must ask, and ask persistently. He who is interested in family history must do this more than anyone else, and continue to question and to set down facts through the generations. Old correspondents will remember the quarterly GENEALOGICAL QUERIES AND MEMORANDA (1896-1900), of which the present work is a development. The simple principle to be remembered is that if you seek or can give information as to any pedigree or any family, your own or any other, let the fact be recorded in THE PEDIGREE DIRECTORY, to which every inquirer must necessarily refer. It is a shame to hoard information and make no use of it ; false pride to be ashamed to ask.

Insertions for THE PEDIGREE DIRECTORY, 1918, should be sent in at once. The more entries inserted, the more likely is the work to be consulted.

DRAMATIS PERSONÆ:

New discoveries in Biography and Genealogy

Giving the names of those who took part in the minor Dramas, Comedies, Tragedies, and ordinary Domestic Affairs of the English from time immemorial, and showing from whence further details may, by the curious, be obtained.

DRAMATIS PERSONÆ is a series of lists of the names of persons who took part in by-gone episodes: the "persons in the play"—but real persons, not imaginary ones; it should appeal, therefore, to those who wish to know what part their people played in their time, or those in whom they are interested.

DRAMATIS PERSONÆ is issued in loose, typewritten sheets of quarto size. An attempt was made to bring out a batch of these sheets each week, in the same manner as a weekly periodical, but the exigencies of record searching and the frequent difficulty of getting at original documents, make that plan impracticable, so that a new method of issue has been adopted. Subscriptions are invited to DRAMATIS PERSONÆ at the rate of One Guinea per hundred sheets; Half-a-Guinea for 50; 5s. 3d. for 25; and may begin at any time—may be for the Whole Series, or may be restricted to any one or more Counties. Sixpence should be added in each case for postage and a neat portfolio in which to keep them until they are bound.

GEORGE SHERWOOD, 227, Strand, London,
W.C.2.

Appreciations

---

Mr. A. R. BAYLEY, B.A., F.R.Hist.S., F.S.G.:

"I like your DRAMATIS PERSONÆ and think it very interesting and useful."

[Mr. Bayley based an article in NOTES AND QUERIES on matter given in Sheets 233, 234, on "Oxford in the Civil War: Mrs. Bambridge's Estate."]

Mr. A. S. CARTER:

"The DRAMATIS PERSONÆ is most interesting. I am sure all genealogists, especially amateurs like myself, will feel most grateful to you for bringing such a mine of information on the social history of England within easy reach. I had no idea these records would give such valuable genealogical data. You are certainly to be congratulated for the infinite pains and time you have bestowed upon them."

Mrs. DAMANT:

"Your DRAMATIS PERSONÆ . . . . What human nature, what peeps into history, and what suggestions of old times are here enshrined! The Puritan soldier, who 'had loved Hawking in his day'; the poor little drudge of a bride of ten years old; the dying man who writes a verse from the Psalms; the wary widow who listens at the door while the will is made; the coy maiden who won't wed sans the consent of her mother, while her swain wishes her 'good fortune' and goes his way. All these are real bits of life and precious to the reader . . . . this delicious little set of genre paintings . . . . Thank you for the pleasure your wonderful sheets have given me. I have seldom been so much attracted by any literary by-way as I am by the one you have opened up to us. How very valuable this collection will be to people who really care for such priceless results of very hard work such as scarce anyone could undertake."

From ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT:

"I find most interesting hard facts that appeal to the phlegmatic Saxon, viz.: Ancient verbiage, genealogy, and biographic notes. I am not gifted or blessed with the Celtic imagination that can weave out of the dust of law courts the ebb and flow of the sands of life's romance, but in DRAMATIS PERSONÆ I find what I can delight in."

From Mr. FALCONER MADAN, M.A., Bodley's Librarian:

"This venture of yours is a very interesting one, and the idea attractive. . . . We shall be glad to take [and pay for] what you have sent us."

Persons named in P.C.C. Wills proved A.D. 1750 (Typewritten Lists.)

GOOD progress has been made in the work of listing the names of persons named in wills as above, and the first year is practically finished. The plan is to take all the wills and to note the names of all the persons mentioned in them, just as they come. The year 1750 to begin with was chosen because it was the time of the beginning of much modern migration, so baffling to genealogists. Once get the names of the people mentioned in each will listed, so that they can easily be "run through" by the searcher at home, and at his leisure, much useless wear and tear will be saved, and great progress in research will be made.

To localize the names as much as possible, they are divided into "County Groups," so that those interested in a County or locality need only subscribe for that particular district.

The County Groups are as follows:—

- I. Durham, Northd., Cumbd., Westmd., Yorks.
- II. Lancs., Cheshire, Derbys., Staffs., Salop, Heref., Worc.
- III. Linc., Notts., Leic., Rutland, Warw., Northton.
- IV. Norfolk, Suffolk, Essex, Herts., Cambs., Huntn.
- V. London, Middx., Kent, Surrey, Sussex, Hants.
- VI. Beds., Berks, Bucks, Oxon., Wilts., Glouc., Mon.
- VII. Devon, Cornw., Somerset, Dorset.
- VIII. Ireland, Scotland, Wales, America, West Indies, etc., making the last Group one that takes in all outlying places and "parts beyond the seas"; places "in partibus transmarinis."

There is no need to point to the value of wills as genealogical and biographical evidence, nor to urge the pressing need of the provision of indexes to their contents. Much has been done to make lists of testators; much remains to be done; but little towards listing the names of the persons mentioned in the wills. It is practicable to make a search for testators of a certain name, but not so for those not of the same surname mentioned as legatees and otherwise. Mention of a person in the will of someone of a different surname is often of the utmost value as an indication of his place of origin and family connexions. The difficult end of the Eighteenth Century is almost become proverbial; these lists will improve our knowledge of it.

All interested in biography and genealogy will be well-wishers to the scheme and the typewritten lists will be in constant demand by searchers. It is necessary, therefore, to point out that the number of copies struck off will be limited to the response made to this circular. It will be no satisfaction to the promoters to be in a position to say, "We are sorry, but all the copies have been taken up."

Please mark the County Group or Groups to which you wish to subscribe, sending One Guinea for each. Another copy of this circular will be returned to you with the receipt. The Subscription for the whole eight Groups is Eight Guineas, covering 40,000 names to be taken out; no more and no less. Thus, each County Group approximates 5,000 names, taken just as they come in each will, with the testator's name, description, and residence given in every case.

To American Subscribers, a Guinea is $5.12, and is easily transmissible by Banker's Draft, payable in London, or by Money Order, obtainable at any Post Office. Cheques, etc., should be crossed "London and South Western Bank" and made payable to GEORGE SHERWOOD, 227, Strand (by Temple Bar), London, W.C.2.

By post 2s. 7½d. (63 cents.) 10s. 6d. per ann. post free ($2.56.)
